

TELLS BANKERS AMERICA HAS SURVIVAL FIGHT ON ITS HANDS

Whether we like it or not, America is fighting for its survival. Robert A. Wilson, senior vice president of the Pennsylvania Co. for Banking and Trusts, Philadelphia, told members of the Adams County Bankers Association, at a dinner meeting at Basehart's Restaurant in Littlestown Wednesday night.

"The time has come to call a halt to wild spending," he declared. "We have wasted far too much in riotous political living. America cannot survive another 10 years of spend, spend, tax, tax, and elect, elect. We have a new administration in Washington, and I believe something will be done, but we should here resolve to give our assistance."

"We and the entire world have a terrific stake in America. We are in a struggle for survival. Waste and extravagance must stop. It can be accomplished. President Eisenhower can come through, but he will have to have our support and help."

Tribute To Speaker

The dinner meeting was a tribute to a former Littlestown resident who had "made good" on his own merits in the banking world, both in the state and in the nation. Mr. Wilson was born in Littlestown and spent his life there until he entered the University of Pennsylvania. During the early part of his talk, he reminisced on childhood and young manhood experiences in Littlestown—catching minnows in Piney Creek, driving to the Hanover Fair in a Jenny Lind buggy, Boy Scout days of fishing in Rock Creek, the Cone-wago and the Monocacy.

Mr. Wilson's wife, his mother, Mrs. Emma Wilson, Littlestown; his sister, Mrs. Mildred Creager, Littlestown, and an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Keagy, Littlestown, were guests at the dinner. It was the first time his mother had heard Mr. Wilson speak in public, according to Chester S. Byers, president of the bankers association, who presided and introduced Mr. Wilson. Mr. Wilson's father, the late Robert Wilson, was once Littlestown's postmaster.

Says Arms Race Lost

Mr. Wilson, in addition to his vice presidency of the Pennsylvania Co., is past chairman of the Trust Division of the Pennsylvania Bankers Association and is now president of the Trust Division of the American Bankers Association.

"No one knows what will happen in Russia," Mr. Wilson continued. "I don't believe the Russians them-"

Two Yankee Planes Crash In Newfoundland; Fear 33 Dead

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (AP)—Two U.S. Air Force planes crashed in Newfoundland yesterday. All 33 men aboard the two planes were believed dead, including an Air Force general.

A giant 10-engine bomber, an RY36, hit a hilltop on the isolated East Coast of Newfoundland. It carried 23 men, including Brig. Gen. Richard E. Ellsworth, 42, of Erie, Pa., commanding general of the Rapid City, S. D., Air Base. Woodmen found 10 bodies today near the wreckage of the plane—a version of the B36 able to deliver blows from bases in the U. S. to almost any point in the world.

A U. S. Superfortress with a crew of 10 crashed in St. George's Bay, about 200 miles across Newfoundland from St. John's on the West Coast. The plane was from Harmon Field on the West Coast.

Searchers found only wreckage and no survivors in the bay, first reports said.

Both planes were on training flights. Ground parties combed through the wreckage of the RY36 for additional bodies.

Stolen Crouse Drill Is Recovered Today

Chief of Police Melvin Swab said today that the electric drill taken by burglars early Monday morning from the plant of I. D. Crouse and Son, Lumber St., Littlestown, was found this morning lying under a lumber pile on the Crouse property.

The Littlestown policeman reported "progress" in his investigation of the Crouse burglary and that at the Towne Theater in Littlestown where the thieves chiseled open a safe and escaped, with $75.

He said it has been determined that burglars used a car or truck and casts have been made of tire tracks it is believed were left by the burglars' auto. Fingerprints also may prove of importance in the case.

The officer said he believes the two Littlestown burglaries and the burglarizing of a Pennsylvania Railroad tool shed at Taneytown were the work of the same gang.

CANCER DRIVE WILL BE MADE HERE APRIL 8

Wednesday, April 8, will be "Lights On" night for the annual drive of the Adams County unit of the American Cancer Society, Fund Drive Chairmen John MacPhail and John A. Hauser announced today.

Originally the "Lights On" night was to have been held April 1, but the campaign committee decided to postpone the drive for one week because of the Holy Week services which both canvassers and the general public will be attending during the first few days of April.

Attorney MacPhail said the solicitors conducting the drive hope to be able to make most of their visits to homes throughout the county on the night of April 8. On that evening persons who wish to contribute to the $4,000 fund being raised by the society are asked to turn on their porch lights as a guide for the canvassers. The persons conducting the collection will go only to those homes where there are porch lights burning that night, and thus will be able to make the collection quickly.

The campaign chairmen announced a number of additional chairmen for the canvass. County Superintendent of Schools J. Floyd Slaybaugh is heading a committee arranging for solicitation in the schools. Miss Irene Miller has been named as McSherrytown chairman. The following have been listed as Gettysburg chairmen: Mrs. LeRoy Winebrenner, Mrs. John D. Teeter, Mrs. Robert Derck and Miss Anne Gilliland.

Approximately half of the money raised in the county remains here for the support of the tumor clinic at the Warner Hospital and other activities sponsored by the Adams County unit. The remainder goes to the national society to sponsor research in cancer and promote education in cancer control.

Chinese Unit Is Smashed By Tough Marines

SEOUL (AP)—U. S. Marine raiders, striking in pre-dawn fog and rain with flamethrowers and bayonets, smashed a Chinese company today as the Reds grouped for an assault on Allied Western Front positions.

The U. S. Eighth Army communique late today reported the raid followed two company-size Chinese attacks on Marine positions shortly after midnight.

It said the Chinese overran the northern flank of a forward position southwest of Bunker Hill, but that the Reds were forced to withdraw after a three-hour fight in which 40 Chinese were counted killed, 50 more estimated killed and 65 estimated wounded.

A second Chinese company hit a forward position northeast of Bunker Hill but was hurled back after losing nine men, the Eighth Army said.

The communique said there was no estimate of Communist casualties in the Marine raid on the Chinese outpost — a counterattack which closely followed the two Red assaults.

"Killed A Lot" "We killed a lot of them," said one of the raiders Pfc. William W. Weitzel of Sinking Springs, Pa. "We could hear their wounded moaning out beyond the wire."

SHAKES TURKEY;
OVER 500 DEAD

ISTANBUL, Turkey (AP)—A violent earthquake shook Western Turkey last night and unofficial reports today said from 500 to 1,000 persons perished. President Celal Bayar left Ankara with government officials for the stricken region.

Zahmi Argon, Red Crescent (Red Cross) information officer, said telegraphed reports from the scene estimated the dead at 500. He said these reports were unconfirmed. Two Istanbul newspapers estimated the death toll at 1,000.

The quake apparently centered around Balikesir, across the sea of Marmara from Istanbul, and near the World War I battlefield of Gallipoli. Police at Balikesir said by phone there were 38 confirmed dead in the towns of Gonen and Manyas, but that there was no contact with the towns of Yenice and Cihani, believed to have been even harder hit.

The Balikesir police said they had unconfirmed reports that 500 were dead in Yenice and Cihani, towns of about 2,000 each. Their confirmed reports included 35 dead at Gonen, 100 miles southwest of Istanbul, and three at nearby Manyas. They said more than half the homes in the latter two towns had been destroyed or damaged.

FATHER OF 3
CONFESSES HE MURDERED WIFE

PHILIPSBURG, N. J. (AP)—A murder charge has been placed against Arthur Huff, who bolted from his house as police dug in his cellar and uncovered his wife's body in a crude grave under a coal pile.

Huff, 37, was captured about an hour after he fled yesterday, and Warren County Prosecutor John H. Pursel said he admitted the slaying.

Pursel quoted Huff as saying he was jealous of his 33-year-old wife, Ruth, because she "worked in a plant where men bothered her." During a violent quarrel on Jan. 25, Huff knocked his wife down a flight of stairs, Pursel said. She was dead when she hit the bottom.

Huff hastily buried her under the coal pile in the cellar of their home and then reported her missing to police, Pursel said.

The Huff's three teenage daughters were not at home at the time. At a preliminary arraignment last night, Huff was charged with murder.

It was only a routine checkup into Mrs. Huff's disappearance that brought police to the home. They spotted the coal pile, and Huff told them there was a cement floor underneath, police said. Upon finding dirt beneath the coal pile, the police began digging. That's when Huff ran out.

The body was found. County Coroner N. C. Marlatt said the woman died instantly of a broken neck.

Huff, an employee of the Warren Paper Mill, reported his wife missing on Jan. 25. Later he notified police that he received a telephone call on Feb. 5 from a woman he believed to be his wife, telling him not to worry about her.

LOSE MILLIONS;
AWARDED $18,000

NEW YORK (AP)—Entertainers Jane Froman and Gypsy Markoff have lost their multi-million-dollar damage suit against Pan American World Airways—but they won judgments anyway.

A State Supreme Court jury voted 11 to 1 yesterday in favor of the airline, defendant in a 1/2 million dollar damage suit.

Then Justice Aron Steuer ordered judgments of $9,050 for Miss Froman and $9,580 for Miss Markoff. There was no judgment for Donald Ross, Miss Froman's former husband.

The two judgments represented the most an airline can be liable for, plus payment for lost personal belongings, under the Warsaw convention, which drew up international regulations for airlines operating between countries.

Miss Froman, the singer, and Miss Markoff, the accordionist, were injured in a Pan American plane crash at Lisbon, Portugal, in 1943. Twenty-four persons were killed and a number of others injured.

Bury Red Stooze
In Prague Today

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—Leaders from the Soviet Union and her satellites paid final homage in Prague today to President Klement Gottwald as the man who tied once democratic Czechoslovakia to the Communist world dominated by Moscow.

The Czech and Soviet national anthems opened the funeral service in the Spanish Hall of Prague's ancient Hradcany Castle for Gottwald, who died last Saturday after an attack of pneumonia and pleurisy at the age of 56.

Prague radio broadcast details of the ceremony, which resembled on a smaller scale the funeral of Prime Minister Stalin 10 days ago. Gottwald, an admirer and obedient servant of Stalin, caught the cold that developed into his fatal illness while attending Stalin's funeral in chilly Moscow.

Nikolai A. Bulganin, the Soviet minister of war, and Chou En-lai, Red China's premier-foreign minister, were among Communist representatives from outside Czechoslovakia at the rites.

Thurmont Voters
Reject Home Rule

Thurmont voters Monday turned down home rule when it defeated a proposed new town charter by a vote of 274 to 159.

The probability of an increased tax rate was reported the biggest argument against the new charter. The Mayor and Council also would have been authorized to borrow up to $10,000 without referendum, doubling the figure in the present charter.

The new charter was of the home-rule type which would have permitted residents to vote on local matters for themselves, particularly in floating bond issues for improvements. At present, money borrowed for improvements must be authorized by the Legislature.

HOWARD SHEETS
IN TRADE PAPER

Howard Sheets Jr., Gettysburg College student and organist for the program "Synopsized Serenade" sponsored over WGCT by the local Moose lodge, is the subject of a story in the current "Hammond Times," magazine published by the Hammond Instrument company of Chicago.

Entitled "Getting An Early Start At A Musical Career", the article is illustrated by a picture of Sheets at an organ and states:

"We're working my way through college," laughs Howard Sheets Jr. when he is applauded for his sparkling music at entertainments in Gettysburg and Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

"Howard is a Junior now at Gettysburg College, majoring in music, but he has been playing the organ professionally since he was a junior in high school.

Worked In Steel Mill

"At that time he did not have his own Hammond organ, but in the summer of 1951 he worked the night shift in a Pittsburgh steel mill and earned the funds for one. Howard was also working as an extra with the Pittsburgh Civic Light Opera during this summer, which made a very heavy schedule for a nineteen-year-old. But Howard didn't think it was such a big job, because he was working with and for his greatest interest—music.

"During the following school term Howard was engaged at Radio Station WGCT as featured organist in the programs Velvet Moods and Whispering Keyboards. Summertime found him playing the Hammond organ at resorts in Cape May and Wildwood, N. J. Since then his talents have been in demand for countless engagements at service clubs, fraternal organizations, restaurants and hotels in the Gettysburg area.

"Just last November, WGCT inaugurated a new organ series with Howard Sheets and he is now heard regularly on a half hour program three times a week." The program, heard Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 9:30 to 10 o'clock in the morning, originates in the local Moose home.

Gloves Present Exciting Touches

The novelty theme in gloves means fresh excitement this Spring, with straw and straw cloth decorated styles receiving fashion acclaim. Styled to tie in with Spring and Summer wear, they are of course washable, and delightfully new.

Patent leathers too, are created to match the many plastic prints and patent accessories featured this year. Plastic patent cloth or new pliable patent leathers give sharp accent to Spring costumes. The white glove again reigns supreme, but this season is spiced with delectable color trim in clear pastels or bright shades, especially wearable with the gay prints in every wardrobe.

String gloves are not only sporty, but in novelty stripes and patterns, have a new dressed-up air. Embroidery gives a new note to this colorful fashion, long a Springtime classic.

And printed cottons continue strongly as a match-and-mix contrast for the solid pastel colors this Spring.

Golden Deeds Class Meets
Mrs. Edgar A. Wolfe, Lumber St., was hostess to the Golden Deeds Sunday School Class of St. John's Lutheran Church for the monthly meeting on Tuesday evening when 13 members were in attendance. The meeting opened with the group singing the class song "Somebody Did A Golden Deed Today" and "The Old Rugged Cross," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Lloyd L. Staveley. The Scripture was read and prayer offered by Mrs. Wolfe. Readings pertaining to St. Patrick's Day were given by several members. The group

The business period was in charge of the president, Mrs. Lloyd L. Staveley. The secretary, Mrs. Harry O. Harner, gave her report. It was decided to conduct an imaginary food sale during the third week of each month. During the social hour group games were enjoyed and a Bible quiz was won by Mrs. Harry Harner. Refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting of the class will be held Tuesday, April 21 at the home of Mrs. Paul Bowers, North Queen St.

The young people of St. James' Reformed Church, along the Harney Rd., and St. Luke's Union Church, near White Hall, were in charge of the Lenten devotions for the public school students of the community, held on Wednesday morning in Redeemer's Reformed Church. The morning's meditation was given by the Rev. Dr. Edward R. Hamme, pastor of St. James' and St. Luke's Churches. The service included Scripture reading, prayer and singing, for which Shirley Crouse served as organist. Lee Krout participated in the service. The group to be in charge of the service next Wednesday will be announced later.

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST
MEMORIES

These are memories we keep:
Little things to make us weep;
Tiny shoes and bonnets small
Worn in days beyond recall
By a baby here no more,
Grown or long since gone before.

In the attic stored away
Are the prizes of yesterday:
Scented pillows edged with braid
Which the loving mother made,
Used no longer, save to keep
As a charm to make us weep.

Lacy caps and linens frayed;
Toys with which the baby played;
Pictures yellowed by the years,
Where but dimly still appears
Some familiar splendor gone,
For the eye to linger on.

'Tis so simple, little things
That the memory longest clings:
Much of triumph is forgot,
Much of joy's remembered not,
But we cherish down the years
All the tokens of our tears.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

HOW SIMPLE IS ENJOYMENT

I used to think that life would grow more and more complicated as I grew older, but I have experienced just the opposite. Life grows simpler. Its genuine enjoyments are more lavish, and the simpler ones have the greater appeal. I have witnessed bigness in little things. You don't have to be in a multitude to get enjoyment. Often it comes in solitude.

People have traveled the earth for enjoyment and returned home to find it in greater abundance in their back-door garden. Give a child a number of toys and at once it will select the simple ones every time. John Howard Payne, when alone in Paris, thinking of home, expressed it all in that line, "Be it ever so humble, there is no place like home." Home is home, and the simpler it is the greater is its enjoyment.

Men who knew poverty, and struggle in their youth, later becoming wealthy, still look back to those days of simple enjoyments, even persisting in them though they might command about every enjoyment that money could buy. A friend recently told me of the habit of the late Henry Ford in savings simple things that interested him from his youth, many of which, when revealed and described, will emphasize the kindly character of his mind and bigness of heart.

Wealth is not essential for enjoyment. If it was most of the people of this earth would never know it. The fact is that more people of humble circumstance know the thrills of enjoyment than anyone else. Enjoyment is something that people create within themselves. Other people only contribute to it.

With the oncoming of another delightful springtime, can you think of a greater picture of enjoyment than the one of the small boy with his fishing rod and bait beside a bubbling stream? Or of the lover of birds and flowers, tramping the wide open spaces for happy discoveries? Genuine enjoyments are always the simple ones! And open to all.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Appreciation and Understanding."

TO TELEVISION CEREMONY OF 'OSCAR' AWARDS

By JAMES BACON

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Tonight's the night the movies and television get married, with the rites taking place at the 25th annual ceremony of Academy Awards.

For the first time, a television audience estimated at NBC at 40 million persons will watch the movie industry's biggest show. It will mark the TV debut for scores of the biggest names in moviedom. Studios have given blanket clearance for their stars to be seen on television—almost a naughty word in movie circles not too long ago.

Shirley Booth, Gary Cooper
Fourteen TV cameras—the same number used for the national political conventions—will greet the emceed and minked movie queens.

Six cameras will be in New York to catch Shirley Booth, a favorite, or any one else who wins. Fredric March, a two-time winner himself, will present the New York Oscars. Jose Ferrer, nominated for "Moulin Rouge," will be in the New York show.

Who's going to win? Most experts pick Miss Booth, Gary Cooper and "High Noon" to cop the three top Oscars.

3 Judges Ponder Musmano Charges

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Justice Michael A. Musmanno of the State Supreme Court, accused of attempting to hinder a bribery trial witness, awaited a ruling today on whether there is enough evidence to warrant placing the case before the grand jury.

Three judges of Allegheny County Court yesterday heard Mayor John J. Mullen of nearby Clairton repeat his accusation that Musmanno asked him to drop charges against two Clairton councilmen and a coal operator.

Musmanno contends no evidence has been presented to show that a crime was committed and wants alderman's action in holding him for the grand jury. The court reserved decision.

SPY WILL NOT CHANGE STORY

NEW YORK (AP)—David Greenglass has refused to recant on his testimony that figured in the conviction and death sentence for his sister and brother-in-law, atom spies Julius and Ethel Rosenberg. The Rosenberg attorney, Emanuel Bloch, said Greenglass' mother and a brother, Bernard, had visited him in prison and had discussed the case with him. The two are seeking to save the Rosenbergs.

Greenglass was quoted as telling his visitors that he told only the truth in his testimony against the Rosenbergs, now in the death house at Sing Sing Prison.

And, he was quoted, he was not coached by the Federal Bureau of Investigation on the drawing of a lens mold for the atom bomb. He testified he gave the drawings to the Rosenbergs.

Greenglass now is serving 15 years in the Federal Prison at Lewisburg, Pa. He confessed to being a member of a wartime Russia spy ring and implicated the Rosenbergs, who have won a stay of execution to March 30 or beyond, pending the outcome of an appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court.

RAIL WORKERS' RAISE HAILED

WASHINGTON (AP)—A four-cent hourly wage boost granted the nation's railroad workers was hailed as a precedent today by union leaders who want to write "productivity pay" guarantees into labor contracts.

The rail pay hike was ordered yesterday by Paul N. Guthrie, University of North Carolina economic professor who acted as arbitrator in a dispute between the carriers and rail unions.

W. P. Kennedy, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen—one of the 19 unions affected by the decision—said he believes it established a principle that workers should share in mounting productivity, or increased output.

"I think workers in other industries will be given the same recognition," Kennedy added. "The fruits of improving productivity should be shared by both management and the workers. We think we've won our point in this case."

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Ten women with families of from five to 11 children have been named outstanding mothers by the National Catholic Family Life Conference.

Boston Braves' Franchise Is Switched To Milwaukee In 1st Major League Shuffle Since '03

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Milwaukee is big league and Boston is a one-club town after the first major league franchise shuffle since 1903—perhaps only a sample of things to come.

The time will arrive when only New York and Chicago will be two-club cities in the opinion of owner Lou Perini of the Braves who yesterday received unanimous approval to move his Boston franchise to Milwaukee and a 7-1 sanction to transfer his Milwaukee franchise in the American Association to Toledo.

President Walter O'Malley of the Brooklyn Dodgers also predicts sweeping changes in the baseball map.

"You'll see more territory being drafted than you can shake a stick at," said O'Malley. "This can set up a chain reaction."

O'Malley may be right but it can't come true before October because the Major League Executive Council last Sunday froze all territory except for the period from Oct. 1 to Dec. 1. The lone exception was the Boston-to-Milwaukee and St. Louis Browns-to-Baltimore moves then under consideration. The Browns, of course, suffered a crushing defeat Monday in a 5-2 rebuke by the American League owners that ruled out the Baltimore proposal.

The Boston Braves became the Milwaukee Braves yesterday afternoon when the American Association accepted a $50,000 payment for "damages" suffered by the loss of Milwaukee.

There was no solid opposition to the Braves' transfer in the National League meeting. The owners said most of the time was consumed in discussing the problems involved—particularly the schedule.

The new schedule finds Milwaukee swapping places with Pittsburgh in the original playing chart. The Milwaukee Braves will be a "western" team and Pittsburgh will become an "eastern" team in the league realignment.

As a result of the shift, Milwaukee will open the season at Cincinnati in the traditional early opener, Monday, April 13. Pittsburgh, now slated to play its first 15 games in the East against Brooklyn, Philadelphia and New York, opens the season at Brooklyn, April 14.

Warren Giles, National League president, repeated again and again that "Perini's fine standing with the other club owners was the most important reason for their approval."

Smiling after winning his long battle, Perini said he was "overwhelmed" by the vote and impressed by the spirit of co-operation of the other owners and their confidence in him.

The wealthy contractor, last survivor of the original "Three Little Steamshovels" who bought the Braves in 1945, said the advent of television and lack of enthusiasm by Boston fans were the big factors in making Boston a one-club town.

The major league all-star game, originally scheduled for Boston, did not go along with the franchise to Milwaukee. It was transferred to Cincinnati and will be played July 14.

Hershey Bears In Tie For 3rd Place

By The Associated Press
The Hershey Bears were tied for third place in the American Hockey League today. But what's more important, they're now a cinch to take part in the playoffs.

The Bears blanked the St. Louis Flyers, 1-0, last night to move eight points ahead of St. Louis. The Flyers only have two games left and it's mathematically impossible for them to overtake the deadlocked Hershey and Syracuse clubs.

Oble O'Brien scored the game's only goal at 10:51 of the first period.

A scheduled game between Syracuse and Buffalo was postponed until tonight.

LANGLOIS GAINS DECISION OVER BOBBY DYKES

DALLAS (AP)—Pierre Langlois, the tough Frenchman, brandished his fourth straight middleweight triumph—a 10-round decision over Bobby Dykes—at the powers that be he be thrown into the big middle of the fight for the world's championship.

Langlois, the stocky-bushy-haired man from Pont-Audemer, was the unanimous winner over Dykes, the lanky Texan from San Antonio, last night as Dallas' best-paying boxing crowd in history turned out for the nationally televised fight.

A crowd of over 5,000, but with only 3,380 paid, turned over $12-213.60 to promoter Lew Gray. There have been larger crowds for boxing here but this is the biggest money gate. Each fighter got 25 per cent plus about $3,600 from television. Thus Langlois and Dykes received over $6,000 for the evening's work.

Langlois fought a boring in fight all the way. He explained that he did this in order to stay inside Dykes' long reach that "would have beaten me to pieces if I had fought him at long range."

Langlois weighed 161½ pounds, Dykes 154½.

Action At Softball League Meeting May Be Rescinded At Special Session March 25

Developments following a meeting of the Softball League Wednesday evening at the Moose Home on York St. may result in a complete revision of the league setup and President John Grider has called for a special meeting for next Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Moose Home.

Action taken during the meeting was approved unanimously but was later blasted by several team representatives which resulted in the calling for a special meeting to iron out the situation.

At the meeting it was decided that to provide better games for players and fans a reduction in the number of teams would be made and an application for membership by the Gettysburg News and Sporting Goods Store was rejected.

It was proposed and accepted that four of last year's 10 teams merge into two teams cutting the league to eight members. The Lantz Legion and Swope's Atlantic combined for one team while the Eagles and Penn-Ceramic joined forces for another single entry.

Other teams would include the Moose, Texas Lunch, Glenn L. Bream Garage, Elks, VFW and East Berlin.

Maybe Detroit Should Shift To National Loop; Beat Cards Again

By The Associated Press
When they were moving the franchises maybe somebody should have shifted Detroit to the National League.

The 1953 Tigers can beat National League teams—seven victories in seven exhibition games. They can't beat American League teams—three losses in three exhibition games.

Yesterday the Tigers beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 5-0. Last week they beat them, 4-0. In the two games St. Louis has managed only nine hits.

Good pitching wasn't a Detroit exclusive yesterday. Washington and Brooklyn both got it but the Senators got a run to go with it and blanked the Dodgers, 1-0. Walt Masterson and Julio Moreno collaborated for Washington while John Podres and Joe Black worked for Brooklyn.

The Boston Braves did right well in the pitching department, too, as rookie Bob Buhl worked five hitless innings against the New York Yankees. Then the Braves made a sudden geographical switch to Milwaukee and a pitching switch to Dick Donovan and the Yanks collected five quick runs to win the game, 5-3.

Both Chicago clubs won on the West Coast. The Cubs edged the St. Louis Browns, 5-4, in the ninth inning at Los Angeles and the White Sox overpowered Los Angeles at Fullerton, Calif., 12-9. Bill Serena homered twice for the Cubs. Ferris Fain and Bill Wilson homered for the White Sox.

Giants Lose Fourth
The New York Giants lost their fourth straight, this time to the Cleveland Indians, 10-6, with the Indians getting all 10 runs in the first three innings off Jim Hearn.

Earl Torgeson and Granny Hamner homered with the bases loaded as the Phillies walloped the Athletics, 10-5, in an all-Philadelphia battle at West Palm Beach, Fla. Cincinnati bunched five hits in the sixth inning to score four runs against the Boston Red Sox and went on to win, 4-3. It was the Reds' third victory in three tries over Boston.

Pittsburgh bowed to the Cuban All-Stars at Havana in a night game, 4-3, when the Cubans pushed across two runs in the ninth against Dick Manville.

Pirates Make First Roster Cut For '53

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates have made the first cut in their roster, optioning catcher Bill Hall to their Class AA New Orleans club.

The 24-year-old rookie batted .260 for Charles in the Class A Sally League last year. He hails from Hartsfield, Ga.

Meanwhile another rookie, 22-year-old pitcher Jim Dunn, received word from his draft board to report for a physical examination for military service next month.

COACH RESENTS NCAA DECISION

RIO GRANDE, O. (AP)—Coach Newt Oliver of Rio Grande says he is going to see a lawyer about suing the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

The NCAA yesterday stripped Oliver's prodigy, Clarence (Bevo) Francis, of his national basketball scoring records. Its rules committee adopted a regulation that only games played by four-year varsity teams go into the record books.

Rio Grande is a four-year institution, but of its 39 games played last season only 12 were against senior colleges.

So the NCAA is going to rewrite the record book which Bevo had rewritten himself with scoring exploits. He held records for scoring the most points in a single game, 116, and for a season average, 50.1, as well as the most points produced in a season, 1954.

Oliver said he believes the NCAA action is illegal and he wants to do something about it.

DECIDE TODAY ABOUT KEEPING NEW FOUL RULE

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Basketball's rules framers decide today whether they want to keep the much-maligned "one and one" free throw rule—and chances are they'll say, "yes."

A high-priced member of the National Basketball Committee said the rule probably will be given another year's grace if for no other reason than that nobody has come up with an adequate substitute.

The committee said it expected to clean up its business before noon. Bruce Drake of the University of Oklahoma, added that he foresaw "no radical changes."

The free throw rule is the big one on the agenda. Adopted a year ago and then submitted to a series of broadsides, the rule stipulates that when a player is victim of a common foul—one not in the act of shooting—he gets another chance to score a basket if he misses his first free throw.

This holds true except in the last three minutes when all common fouls draw two throws, both good if made. At the same time fouled teams must take their shots. They can't waive the foul.

Bucceroni, Jones Draw Suspensions

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Boxing Association has suspended Dan Bucceroni of Philadelphia and Fred (Rocky) Jones of Chester, Pa., at the request of the Wisconsin State Athletic Commission for backing out of a scheduled fight in Milwaukee.

The Wisconsin commission said Bucceroni withdrew from a bout with Wes Bascom originally scheduled for March 16 on the ground that the Quaker City fighter didn't have time to train for the event. Jones then agreed to sub for Bucceroni but later also withdrew, the commission added. The Chester fighter gave no reason for changing his mind.

The commission said each fighter will have to pay $500 for expenses in advertising the fight, which had to be cancelled.

Yeadon Defeats John Harris 59-44 To Enter Finals For Eastern PIAA Cage Pennant

By DICK HOENIG
HARRISBURG (AP)—Yeadon, a Delaware County Class B high school, today is the first regional finalist in this year's PIAA Class A state basketball tournament.

Already labeled the Cinderella Team of the 1953 playoffs, the suburban Philadelphians trounced Harrisburg John Harris, 59-44, yesterday. The victory, fourth of the month's eliminations, sends the Dist. 1 standard bearers against Saturday's Old Forge-Allentown winner in the game that will pick a new Eastern champ.

Coatesville, the 1952 Eastern winner was sidetracked from defense of its crown by the same Yeadon club in the Dist. 1 final.

Joining Yeadon in chalking up interdistrict first round triumphs yesterday was a powerful Johnstown five of Dist. 5, winner in a 87-43 breeze over little Berlin of Dist. 5. In a third Class A game Meadville retained its top Dist. 10 ranking by cracking a 23-game winning streak of Sharpshville. The score was 52-49.

Saron Is Favored
The Johnstown triumph set up another Saturday night dogfight between the Trojans and Sharon (Dist. 7). Sharon is favored to make the trip to Philadelphia as the Western champion. Sharon must reverse an early season loss to Johnstown to do it, though.

Yeadon, competing in Class A ranks by choice, had little trouble in outplaying the Dist. 3 champions from the Central Penn League. Height, accurate shooting and adroit ball handling put the Eagles in front early in the first quarter and they were never in trouble thereafter.

Their star, Jack Weissman, outshone Harris' great scorer Dave Graybill, getting 26 points. Graybill was held to 12, his lowest total of the season.

In reaching the interdistrict round Yeadon also toppled a once-beaten Haverford team before upsetting Coatesville. The Eagles advance as the tourney's darkhorse entry.

Win Twelve Straight
Johnstown was held to a four point advantage in the first quarter by Berlin but after that the Tri-County kings swept to their 27th win in 28 games with ease. It was the 12th straight win for the Trojans and put them in the position to meet the Mt. Union Indies in a quarter-final game of the Waynesboro Y-H basketball tournament this evening. Tonight's game will be the second on the evening's program.

QUARTER-FINAL GAME

The Gettysburg Vagabonds will meet the Mt. Union Indies in a quarter-final game of the Waynesboro Y-H basketball tournament this evening. Tonight's game will be the second on the evening's program.

The Class B Eastern titlist is decided tomorrow when Marymount of Wilkes-Barre meets Bethlehem at Bethlehem. Erie Kanty Preo has won a Western final berth opposite the winner of tomorrow's game between St. Basil's of Pittsburgh and St. Joseph's of Reno.

The Class A championship game is set for Erie Tuesday night with the Class B finale in the East March 27.

TOP BRITISH ADVISERS TO TALK TO TITO

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill called in his top defense and economic advisers today for more talks with President Marshal Tito, Communist boss of Yugoslavia.

It was generally believed that Britain and the anti-Moscow Red dictator were working out assurances—short of a formal treaty—of mutual support in the cold war with the Soviet Union.

The British Foreign Office has given few clues to the scope of the talks but it is known that the problem of Trieste looms large in the attempt to develop closer ties between Tito's Balkan nation and the Western Allies.

Conflicting Yugoslav-Italian claims to sovereignty in the divided "free" territory at the head of the Adriatic Sea thus far have imposed a major roadblock to such efforts.

Economic Aid A Topic

Before Tito's arrival in London Monday, Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden said Britain hoped "for improved relations between Yugoslavia and Italy—then the West will be truly united."

The first session of the international conference was held Tuesday. As it resumed, Tito was expected to raise the question of economic aid from Britain to his country and perhaps the placing of Yugoslav orders here for modern arms, including jet fighter planes. Tito saw some of Britain's newest jets in action yesterday at an RAF demonstration marred by the death of two pilots in a collision aloft.

FORMER PARSON WINS IN SLANDER SUIT FOR $7,500

BALTIMORE (AP)—A former preacher who took a job as a dining room captain in a Harrisburg, Pa., hotel for a livelihood yesterday won a $7,500 slander suit against Bishop Lawrence H. Hemingway of the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

The plaintiff, the Rev. Mackay Clarence Carpenter, charged that the bishop falsely accused him of a crime and refused to give him a pastoral appointment at a church conference here last year.

He alleged in his suit that the bishop's actions prevented him from pursuing his profession.

Crowd Sang Hymns
The bishop, a Washington, D. C., resident, denied that he made any derogatory remarks about the preacher and said he only appointed a committee to investigate the charges. He acknowledged that he withheld a church appointment from the Mr. Rev. Carpenter.

About 150 followers of Bishop Hemingway crowded the courtroom and sang hymns while awaiting the outcome of the law suit. Bishop Hemingway testified he owns about $45,000 worth of property in Washington, has about $87,000 in securities along with other members of his family and gets $6,000 per year for expenses and an identical sum as salary.

INDICT "CONS" IN KIDNAPPING

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—A federal grand jury has indicted two Eastern State Penitentiary convicts, now serving long terms for attempted armed robbery and felonious assault, in the kidnapping of a South Fallsburg, N. Y., trucker last August.

James Finnigan, 39, formerly of South Fallsburg, and Gerald E. Doughty, 29, of Columbus, O., already are serving six to 17 year sentences after pleading guilty last September to the holdup shooting of Willis Avery, a taxi driver, near Carbondale.

Acting U. S. Atty. Joseph C. Kreder asked for an indictment on the additional count of kidnapping, charging Finnigan and Doughty robbed Albert Thiel, 5, at Narrowsburg, N. Y., then forced him to drive them in his truck to a point near Beachlake, Pa. Avery was shot but recovered.

Crossing a state line in commission of a criminal act brings a case within federal jurisdiction. If convicted on the kidnapping charge Finnigan and Doughty face maximum sentences of 25 years each on that count.

IKE HAS KEPT RELATIONS WITH CONGRESS GOOD

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP)—Shortly after President Eisenhower took office it was plainly stated at the White House that the administration would not permit itself to be drawn into a public controversy with Congress.

This was said in reply to protests by newsmen against a "no comment" attitude in the White House at a time when there seemed to be a difference in views between the administration and some Republicans in Congress.

From then until now, almost two months later, Eisenhower has not publicly said a critical word about Congress or any of its members or committees.

Agree On Compromise
This then seems clearly the policy Eisenhower has set for himself: Try to get along with Congress, if not at all costs, at least as long as possible.

Which means: Try to persuade Congress to his way of thinking on an issue and, if he can't, then try to compromise. He has not had to decide whether he'll follow this policy at all costs because no differences between the White House and Congress on a truly major issue have yet arisen.

That Eisenhower feels he has been successful with his policy so far was evident from what he said yesterday at a luncheon of a group of businessmen.

Points To Cooperation

He spoke proudly of a noticeable day-by-day increase in co-operation between the Capitol and the executive department. And he said he knows it is also felt in Congress.

This would seem to be the answer to those who wondered when Eisenhower would assert leadership, by pressure or criticism or demands or even a firm stand, when things seemed to be going wrong for him in Congress.

He may be trying to take a long view of his job: He'll be in the White House four years; his major problem will be to keep the country sound economically and successful in foreign affairs.

Raises A Question

If that's his viewpoint then, as long as he achieves those two objectives he may feel it's not worth fussing about if he suffers setbacks on minor points which may seem important at the moment but aren't in the long view.

If he lets the lawmakers run over him on those minor issues, without protesting or antagonizing any of them, he may feel he will have a reservoir of good will in Congress when the major issues arise.

do FALSE TEETH

Rock, Slide or Slip?

FASTEETH, an improved powder to be sprinkled on upper or lower plates, holds false teeth more firmly in place. Do not slide, slip or rock. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. FASTEETH is alkaline (non-acid). Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.

Which raises a question, of course: Can he go on indefinitely, avoiding any conflict with Congress, without in the end seeing Congress take over the leadership and run the whole show, leaving him on the sidelines?

In a place like Washington, events which occur in a period of comparative quiet are apt to seem larger than they really are.

Eisenhower's two months in office have been comparatively quiet. For one thing, he and the people he brought in with him have been trying to get adjusted to their new jobs and responsibilities.

No Major Splits
And Congress, except for some investigations which got attention, has been mostly busy with the routine job of preparing legislation to be voted on in the late spring and summer.

Since the events which did occur have been few there has been more time for the public eye to give each a maximum of attention. This meant more time for speculating on, and magnifying, the significance of what has happened.

Actually, there have been some bumbles in relations between the White House and Congress, but they can be put down to inexperience. In some instances Eisenhower's own Republicans went contrary to him or ignored him.

Farm Briefs

Corn once more has been crowned "King of Crops" for Pennsylvania, according to Federal-State surveys of 1952 Keystone State crop production, value and rank, announced by the State Department of Agriculture.

The bumper corn crop of 66 million bushels was the largest grown in Pennsylvania in 27 years and

But nothing that has happened has been of major importance. The test of Eisenhower's relations with Congress lies ahead of him, not behind him.

the value of more than $118 million was second only to $127 million set in 1947, the Department said. Yield per acre average a near-record 49 bushels of shelled corn.

Due to record cold storage holdings of turkeys and low prices received compared with the cost of feed, turkey growers to Pennsylvania has expressed intentions to produce 10 per cent fewer turkeys this year than last. Nationally, production is indicated to be down eight per cent this year.

Continued mild weather and liberal feeding of concentrates favored milk production on Pennsylvania farms and output for January at 470,000,000 pounds was easily the highest of record for the month, the State Department of Agriculture announced following Federal-State surveys.

The Game Commission estimates the groundhog kill last year at 281,194 or almost 23,000 more than in 1951.

Crisp crumbled bacon, chopped chutney and cream cheese make a savory canape spread. Add a little cream to the cheese to soften it when you are mixing it with the bacon and chutney.

Here's a good idea for small-fry luncheon fare: Turn creamed meat or fish into a small casserole and top with a diced cooked vegetable, then a one-inch layer of mashed potatoes. Bake in a hot oven until heated through and potatoes are flecked golden-brown.

TIMELY FACTS ABOUT LETTUCE

Because human beings have not yet devised any method or excuse for cooking lettuce and thereby ruining its natural food values, or in other words, because lettuce is eaten raw, it is one of the best sources of vitamins and minerals among all vegetables. It is exceptionally rich in vitamins A, B-one, B-two, also it is a good source of vitamin C and furnishes liberal supplies of iron and calcium. On the basis of these dietary merits, plus its crisp goodness, lettuce should be included prominently in every well rounded home garden.

Seldom should gardeners in this part of the country attempt to grow heading varieties of lettuce. This advice is supported by two reasons. First, head lettuce is the most difficult of all vegetable crops to grow. Second, commercial production is centered in a few specialized areas against which gardeners in less favorable regions cannot hope to compete either in quality or price. And of course, for home consumption the easily grown leafing varieties are so much richer in nutrients than the heading sorts that there are no sound reasons why growers should bother with head varieties. As often advised here, leaf lettuce should be started in a cold-frame even in late January and early February. By late February sowings may be made safely in sunny beds under a muslin cover. Then after March 10 to 15 most experienced gardeners do not hesitate to make sowings in the open.

Soil for lettuce should be mellow, alkaline, finely pulverized, and well drained. The wise gardener who followed the editor's advice last fall and stored a liberal supply of rich loam indoors over winter now finds a profitable use for it. Even where the outdoor soil is too wet to permit preparation for sowing lettuce, the dry loam will amend the situation.

Seed should be sown uniformly broadcast but not too thick. Occasionally leaf lettuce may be grown in rows only three or four inches wide to permit removal of crowding plants after germination. Seed should be covered shallowly merely by sprinkling sand or sandy loam over the bed and pressing the surface with a board or trowel.

One of the main secrets in growing leaf lettuce for home use is to have an ample supply of crisp, young leaves reaching edible size from late winter until late fall. This is easily possible through two practices. First, in harvesting lettuce leaves should be cut off singly and not by severing entire bunches. This encourages the development of successive crops of leaves. Second, whenever a bed begins to fail another bed should be coming into bearing.

Among desirable varieties of leafing sorts are Early Curled Simpson, Black-Seeded Simpson, Grand Rapids, Prize Head, and Stobolt.

By the time hot midsummer weather arrives leaf lettuce beds should be partly shaded by slats or muslin to protect the leaves from excessively hot sun.

One of the reasons why leaf lettuce has a higher dietary value than heading kinds lies in the fact that the open leaves obtain and store more of the beneficial effects of the sun. Therefore, bed protection from hot midsummer sun is sought solely to avoid toughening the leaves.

The last sowing in fall may be carried into early winter by covering the bed with pine boughs just before winter rings down his final curtain.

FACTS ABOUT FERTILIZERS

There has grown up in the minds of American farmers and gardeners a general but erroneous idea that commercial fertilizers are intended to be used as a substitute for natural soil fertility. Carried to its impractical extreme, this theory eventually results in growers thinking fertilizers will correct various soil defects. Therefore, as another growing season starts, it is wise to consider what roles commercial fertilizers do not play as well as those in which they serve.

Commercial fertilizers prove most useful in stimulating plant growth in soils that are naturally fertile, well drained, mellow with organic matter, and otherwise properly balanced. Here fertilizers return their greatest rate of profit.

And of course, the opposite must be considered. In shallow, hard soils that lack organic matter, commercial plant foods return their smallest profits. In this case they demonstrate conclusively they will not serve to overcome deficient fertility or take the place of organic matter.

These thoughts lead logically to the question—What is a fertile soil? Natural fertility consists mainly of decayed vegetation mixed with clay and sand to form a mellow, deeply granular loam that holds moisture well in dry weather and provides good drainage and low water table in wet seasons. Every farmer and gardener should seek to deepen shallow soils and to lighten heavy soils by incorporating more and more organic matter every year in the form of green vegetation turned under or composted vegetation mixed with the soil in various phases of pre-

In isolated cases where gardeners are experimenting with what is called "organic gardening," which is gardening without use of commercial fertilizers, amazing yields are often produced.

They emphasized deepening and mellowing soils with organic matter.

Of course, they must occasionally apply raw phosphate rock to restore the phosphorus balance lost by leaching and also in crops harvested.

There is a theory back of organic gardening that attributes numerous human ailments to a deficiency of certain minerals and vitamins caused by the presence of inorganic plant foods in the soil—in other words, by use of commercial fertilizers. And while the theory is not yet proved, the fact remains that these experimenters are growing astonishingly high quality vegetables and fruits without commercial plant foods.

Where fertilizers are used, gardeners should study the factor of better placement. For example, experience shows that potato yields better when the fertilizer is placed in the soil slightly outside and below the seed pieces.

Most vegetables which bear their edible parts above the ground, excepting, of course, tomatoes, cucumbers, squashes, and cantaloupes, are often benefited by one or more side dressings of nitrogenous fertilizers. This is particularly true of cabbage, cauliflower, Brussels sprouts, broccoli, lettuce, peppers, peas, kale, and some cases snap beans.

The editor urges readers with unanswered questions about fertilizers and their use to write him this spring for needed information and advice. Merely enclose a stamped, addressed envelope for a personal reply.

HUSBANDS DO SHOPPING

NEW YORK (AP)—Two out of three husbands shop for groceries at least once a week. More shopping by the man of the house is responsible for new packaging trends, according to a survey by the Diamond Match Co. Dainty "feminine" pinks and pastels are reported on the way out.

Grocery shopping by men is attributed to the rise of supermarkets, suburban "parking lot shopping centers," and maintenance of a national birth rate which keeps mothers tied to the home.

Fresh Colors Introduced In Home; More Seating Urged To Enhance Its Greater Livability

Until the advent of television, the home was generally regarded as secondary in importance. A new car or vacation trip superseded the rating of the home. But television has changed all that. People stay at home more, entertain more at home and as a result home furnishings and accessories are being designed to create a comfortable, airy atmosphere for Spring '53.

Because more seating is now required, the cumbersome furniture of the past, and unnecessary pieces are gradually being replaced by functional pieces, additional sofas, and chairs, comfortably, but handsomely constructed, thus making the home a more "livable" place. There are divans with drop-down arms for luxurious reclining while viewing one's favorite program or reading. There are wonderful swivel chairs that may be used for dining and game tables as well as TV viewing.

Interesting too, are TV stools of rush with wrought iron legs. These are as smart as they are practical, are adaptable to a variety of uses and are equally at home in the living room or on the patio.

Wrought iron indoors and outdoors is the big news and is dramatically illustrated by several manufacturers in dining groups, lounge chairs, sofas, desks, occasional pieces, floor and table lamps. Combinations with wrought iron will feature wood, leather, wicker, colored and natural raffia, glass and marble in variegated colors.

Worthy of attention is the trend toward different woods in furniture, thereby adding interest. One manufacturer has brought out a dining table, the top of which is knotty walnut and the base mahogany. Black scuff-resistant anklets are used for accent.

The new carpets for '53 are being planned for all year 'round living. Homemakers all over the country are choosing them to create an outdoor atmosphere indoors to serve as a reminder of green grass, blue sky, golden sunlight and the good rich earth through the winter months, and to harmonize with nature once the time rolls around for open windows and doors.

Colorful patchwork quilts, heavy homespun, shepherd checks and mosaics are the newer inspirations in carpet design this spring. Even the familiar scrolls, leaves and flowers of traditional carpet motifs have taken on a new, rich, textured look.

In addition to wool carpets there are blends of wool, man-made fibers and cottons. Colors, too, are in all-season tones; to create a warm look on the floor in the winter, yet cool in comparison with the brilliant sunlight of a summer's day.

Fabrics for Spring '53 are exciting and give full recognition to the demands of modern, traditional and provincial furniture. Most feature easy maintenance. Colors lean toward pastels, yet vying with this interest are the neutrals, sands, beiges and browns.

To back up all these wonderful new ideas for '53 are the new wallpapers. As in practically everything else, in paper too, it's color and more color. The spring offerings are alive with brightness.

Very important is the use of companion patterns and colors based on the theory that the present layout of homes is no longer a matter of "how many rooms," but "how much living space."

Deep tones are highlighted in designs appropriate for every period of furnishings. Small scale scenic and toile for the formal interior; delicate Oriental motifs traced against grounds of celadon green, grey, honey beige or carbon black, for the traditional home. Provincial patterns have come in for modern treatment with pleasant new color accents in avocado, cafe au lait, pimento red and rosy wine.

More attention is being devoted to wallpapers appropriate for modern furniture because of its ever-increasing popularity. There are geometric and abstract designs which give a third dimensional feeling, and modern architectural motifs, alternating neutral shades with muted tones giving a monochromatic effect.

Smart too, are the papers with a textured feeling. Many of these effect a grained and woven surface, looking much like tweed and other textured fabrics.

Not to be overlooked are the very attractive designs with an East and West Indies influence, such as bamboo, woven and braided grass and wide woven slats.

SLIPONS TO BE POPULAR SHOES

Footwear for men moves happily this Spring toward the more comfortable type of thing they like most. The new in shoes reflects styling dominant in suits, jackets, and slacks.

With due concern for the average man's innate conservatism the new footwear is trimmer and lighter and the variety of styles being made available for the new season furnishes a broad opportunity for expression of individual taste.

The most exciting development of all, is the blossoming of the universally popular "loafer" style into full-fledged footwear that is now designed to go anywhere — to business, to the dance, or to play.

This new type of shoe is a far cry from the original "loafers" which soon after their introduction came to be known as "sloppy joes." To begin with, they are now called "slip-ons." In the second place, they are being so carefully designed that once the trouser cuff reaches down to their tops, they are distinguishable from time-tested classics only by the fact that they have no strings.

And in place of strings they are conservatively decorated by shaping of the leather itself. Some sport tassels. Models are available in a great diversity of leathers.

More conventional shoes for men this Spring are treated somewhat more conservatively as might be expected, but every care is taken to avoid the stodgy. Browns are out in front. The wing tip is expected to be even more popular. Plainer, smoother and more restrained detail, especially in the higher priced brackets, dominates the new shoe picture.

The plain toe Blucher in grain or cordovan leathers is headed for greater spring popularity. Among lighter, brighter colors for these less formal shoe styles is Amber-tone which promises to be especially popular with younger men.

COLORS GO SUBTLE

Colors in the new men's wearables show a trend to softer, more muted tones. Big splashy patterns give way to smaller, neater designs.

Indians in Canada are legally classed as minors.

Modern medical science through constant research has in the last decade done much to increase the life span of us all. Knowing this, it has been all too easy for us to call upon a doctor only in our hour of need, when in the majority of cases early diagnosis and treatment by a Medical Doctor could have prevented more serious complications from arising.

SAYS U.S. POLICY HURT INCENTIVE FOR NEW STEEL

NEW YORK, (AP)—The United States Steel Corp. says government policies have almost completely undermined the incentive for new producers to undertake steel production.

In its annual report, U. S. Steel said yesterday that the basis of high standards of living in modern industrial societies is the accumulation of tools of production.

"Maintenance of the maximum competitive incentives to increase and improve the tools of production is thus the only guarantee of rising standards of living," the report said.

Financial Summary
A financial summary appended to the report to stockholders by Benjamin F. Fairless, chairman of the board, stated further that combined market value of common stocks of the five largest steel producers at the close of 1952 averaged $32 a ton of ingot capacity. It now costs more than $300 a ton of capacity to build a steel mill, equip it with finishing facilities and provide raw material sources.

"If there is deducted from this cost the fixed income portion representing the market value of currently outstanding preferred stocks and bonded debt ($10 per ton) there then remains a venture amount which is approximately nine times the common stock market value of $32 per ton."

Fairless informed stockholders U. S. Steel's production loss last year from two general strikes and a strike threat was 6.9 million ingot tons, bringing its total strike loss since the end of World War II to an estimated 18.9 million tons.

Strikes Nullified Gains
Uninterrupted operation of all increases in rated capacity by U. S. Steel since Jan. 1, 1946, would have represented a cumulative total of about 19.7 million tons by the end of 1952, he said, adding, "It is apparent that strikes have thus far nullified nearly all the production benefit otherwise available from these capacity increases."

"Big Steel" capacity on Jan. 1 this year was rated at 36.4 million net tons or 31 per cent of the industry total.

The report placed U. S. Steel net income for 1952 at a revised figure of $143,687,746, equal to $4.54 a common share. This compared with $184,359,787, or $6.10 a share, in the preceding year.

The number of U. S. Steel stockholders of record reached a new high during 1952 and at the year end totaled 280,334, including 262,500 individuals, Fairless reported.

In the early days of New Mexico, sheep were raised for meat, and ranchers, having no good market for wool, permitted anyone who would do so to shear sheep for a dollar per 1,000 animals.

10-POINT PLAN FOR NEW JOBS IS APPROVED

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP)—A commission formed to promote industry in the unemployment-ridden anthracite belt has adopted a 10-point program to create new jobs in the region.

The Northeast Pennsylvania Industrial Development Commission, with representatives from all areas of the hard coal region yesterday approved these points for development of a "united front" against loss of jobs and industry:

Development of projects on a region-wide basis.

A united and uniform industrial promotional program.

Complete representation of all areas in a united industrial development program.

Pool resources, manpower, ideas and promotional efforts to locate every industry such as aluminum, steel, chemicals and others in the anthracite region.

Maintain Production
Aid the anthracite industry to maintain present production and employment potential.

Interchange of ideas and information on a region-wide basis.

Formulate and execute a continuous promotional program and study of all industry survey reports for promotion purposes.

Keep agencies of government informed of regional economic conditions.

Encourage uniform and good business policy in industrial development work.

Encourage a spirit of cooperation among all communities with the primary object of total and expanding employment throughout Northeastern Pennsylvania.

Election of the President of the United States has been thrown into the House of Representatives and there decided in two instances, Jefferson and John Quincy Adams.

Kitchens To Take On New Color Tones

The mechanical marvels that make it almost completely automatic have been accepted and now the kitchen is being made to look as well as it operates.

The use of wood tones, so much easier to maintain than the laboratory whites is becoming more and more popular. The beauty of texture of birch, pine, maple and oak adds immeasurably to the attractiveness and is enhanced by new window treatments, floor and wall coverings.

Cabinets with drawers expertly designed for the things they're to hold are real furniture with handsome hardware and fine, durable finishes. If metal and white cabinets are preferred excellent color note can be given to the white by contrasting it with colored backgrounds and gay accents.

Rubber soap dishes, rubber drain board covers, rubber bowl scrapers and rubber gloves may all be cleaned with a baking soda solution. Use three tablespoons of the soda dissolved in a quart of warm water.

CAST DRILLING FOR OPERETTA

Charles Baker and Margaret Rocks will be featured as Prince Frederick and Cinderella in the "Slip of the Slipper," a modern version of Cinderella, to be presented by St. Joseph's High School. The operetta is under the direction of the Rev. David W. Shaum of Mount St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg. Miss Cecelia T. Gorman, a freshman at St. Joseph College and a graduate of Holy Cross Academy and the Floyd Ward School, both in Lynchburg, Va., is instructing members of the Glee Club in various dance numbers which will be seen in the operetta. Sister Genevieve, Moderator, has announced that the tentative dates are April 12 and 13.

March 25 will be observed as a holiday by St. Joseph's students. Participants in the United Nations contest on Tuesday, March 24, will be Joan Reaver, Joan Walter, Honore Fitz, Margaret Kane, Robert Kretz, Edward Ashcroft, all of the Senior Class.

Give Irish Program
Miss Ann Young, Home Economics Demonstrator, Potomac Edison Co., gave a demonstration, Thursday, on the use of pressure cookers in the cooking of meat and vegetables to second year Home Economics students. The school expressed its appreciation to the company and Miss Young.

An Irish program was given Tuesday, St. Patrick's Day, by first and second year students.

Irish solos were sung by Eugene Rosensteel, Thomas O'Brien, Dolores Topper, Frank Ashcroft and Jean Watkins. Mary Louise Dukehart portrayed the "sweet personality, full of rascality," Peggy O'Neill. Virginia Joy, Theodora and Theresa Rybkowsky and Virginia Topper, who have been under the instruction of Miss Joan Boyle, gave a rendition of the "Irish Lilt." Many familiar Irish melodies were sung with Eugene Sprenkle as accompanist.

Games Net $70
Games held on Tuesday evening in St. Euphemia's School hall sponsored by Band 9 of the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin of St. Joseph's Church were attended by approximately 100 persons. The door prize was won by Thornton

190 WRESTLERS AT 67 SCHOOLS ENTER TOURNEY

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. (AP)—Entries for the 2nd National Collegiate Wrestling Championships March 27-28 today hit a record 190, making necessary qualifying bouts to cut the field.

Matmen from 67 colleges and universities have entered the four-session competition featuring 10 weight class events instead of the usual eight. Only 160 wrestlers can compete in the elimination tourney, or eight bouts in each of the 10 events. The preliminaries will cut the field to this figure.

Chief threat at the two-day meet will be University of Oklahoma, champion the past two years. Together with Oklahoma A and M, the Southwest school has held the national championships 19 of the last 22 years. No Eastern team has ever won the tournament.

Scheduled for action in the tourney are three defending champions: Hugh Peery, Pittsburgh, 115-pound titlist; Joe Lemmyre, Penn State, 167-pound crown holder, and Gene Nicks, Oklahoma A and M heavyweight.

The extra events in addition to the standard eight are taken from last year's Olympic competition. Olympic wrestling calls for a 115-pound and a 191-pound class in addition to the other classes.

Stiffest competition is expected in the 123, 137 and 167-pound classes, where the most entries have been recorded.

Biggest man in the event is defending heavyweight champion Nicks who tips the scales at 230.

Teams slated to put a full eight-man quota on the mats include the two Oklahoma teams, Penn State, Pitt, Toledo and three Iowa schools—Cornell College, Iowa State Teachers and Iowa State.

Closest an Eastern team has come to the top since World War II was in 1951 when Penn State finished third. Oklahoma A and M holds the record, winning 16 titles. Oklahoma, however, is expected to repeat as title holder.

Prosaic Sheets Emerge As Aid To Change In Interior Scheme

The plain and prosaic sheet that has done such heavy-duty work for so many years has now emerged as a glorious aid to interior decoration.

Today's homemaker uses sheets not just on the bed, but for colorful bedroom decor in draperies, vanity skirts, canopies, in fact, she even carries them into the dining room for gay luncheon sets — and for a host of attractive effects throughout the house.

Sheets are becoming more and more popular in home decoration because, in the first instance, they offer a real economy. A double bed sheet contains about seven yards of good quality fabric, and it takes only four sheets to decorate a charming single bedroom. In the second instance, both muslins and percales come in such a wide variety of lovely pastels with endless decorative possibilities — so perfect for spring and summer.

Both these fabrics have a clean-cut smoothness that lends itself beautifully to decoration. They fall naturally into soft, even drapery folds; they make crisp ruffles and pleats; they fold smoothly into swags and flounces.

And what's more, it's a cinch to match bedroom colors to their petal-soft pastel shades. Any housewife who has gone through the arduous task of trying to find an exact match for a pastel color will appreciate the joy of being sure of color duplication.

Sheets provide a wonderful expanse of seamless fabric which minimizes time and work in sewing. A pair of window draperies can be made by measuring the window length and sewing in the heading. It's as simple as that!

There's no need to tell the average housewife about the easy laundering qualities of sheeting fabrics. Modern sheets, with their guaranteed fast colors, are constructed to come through constant laundering flower-fresh — sturdy as ever.

Despite their dainty colors today's muslin and percale sheets

Hats Go Lighter In Tone, Weight

Because of the deft styling and the appealing softness of lines which the designers have put into men's hats for this Spring, it begins to look as if the "1953 Easter Parade" may well turn out to be a "Men's Hat Parade."

Narrower brims and smaller, more tapered crowns will be prevalent. Bright, smartly patterned bands will give hats an extra dash of color and style. Subtle color treatments are adroitly blended with the new, lighter color tones.

are made to wear — to give years of beautiful satisfaction in all your make - it - with sheets decorating projects.

13TH DAUGHTER WELCOMED BY MAINE COUPLE

PITTSFIELD, Me. (AP) — Lloyd Brooks looked at his newborn 13th daughter today and decided that "if we're ever going to have a son, guess we'll have to adopt one."

But Brooks said he was nonetheless pleased with the arrival last night of 8-pound, 2-ounce Lorene Avis.

PUBLIC SALE

The undersigned will offer at public sale, March 21, 11 o'clock, 58-acre farm; six-room frame house; electricity; good well of water; two poultry houses; barn and garage. Farm is in good condition. Excellent for poultry. Five miles from Gettysburg along Harrisburg road. Near Earl Guise's garage.

JOHN E. PLANK
Gettysburg R. 4, Pa.

When his new daughter's arrival was announced, the 37-year-old, $50-a-week textile worker dashed happily to the delivery room of Osteopathic Hospital in Waterville shouting: "I knew it would be another girl."

Both the baby and Mrs. Brooks were reported doing well. The mother, who is 37, tips the scales at 100 pounds.

The Brooks live in a converted schoolhouse of four rooms—three rooms and a bath downstairs and an unfinished room upstairs.

Mrs. Brooks' father, 78-year-old Benjamin Webb, lives with them. In addition the family keeps two dogs, two cats and a guinea pig.

Millinery For Spring Has "Light-Headed" Look That Will Win Feminine Favor

Spring millinery fashions for 1953 have a charm which no feminine heart can resist. Dainty little shapes that curve and cling, or spreading parasols brims that cast flattering shadows, they all have a light-headed look that is definitely appealing.

The bonnet and the sailor are again at the head of fashion's list. The most wearable bonnets have curving, face-framing brims that are angled for profile-flattery. Sailors are smartest with shallow crowns and narrow brims, posed just back of the hairline. Sometimes the silhouette is a subtle blend — a sailor with a rippling bonnet brim or a bonnet with the smooth roundness of a sailor.

The bell-shaped cloche in its Spring variation is shallower and has a softer, irregular brim. Little cap shapes have high-flying feathers or flowers, the pillbox is scalloped or dimpled, or cuffed with a tiny rolled brim, and wide-brimmed hats share the trend to less crown and gentler brims.

Texture is predominant in Spring straws and fabrics, particularly the deep, soft, mossy textures achieved by combining transparent and translucent straws.

Highly Polished Surface
An iridescent look is found in combinations of fine-sewn, braid in row-on-row of white and color, or ombre shadings. Smooth straws are often striped, plaid, or checked. Newest of all the Spring straw textures is the glossy satin sheen of highly polished straw.

The flower-trimmed hat is most likely to bear a single full-blown rose, or masses of delicate miniature blossoms such as forget-me-nots, violets, clover or apple blossoms. Vells, too, are important both for "trimming" and as flattering masks over the brow.

The Spring color palette ranges from the brightest to the palest shades. The vivid contrast of black on white, and the warm blonde beiges are the really neutral combinations. Bold color combinations such as orange-and-pink, turquoise-and-violet, or royal-and-lime, are high fashion this year.

Among the quieter, harmonious costume colors echoed in hats of straw, felt or fabric are the sunny yellows, mossy yellow-greens; gentian blue, bright turquoise, sapphire; petal pink, scarlet and crimson; copper and beige; mauve and violet.

Exciting Combinations
Metallic gold with beige, and shining silver with white straw are the most exciting hat combinations that go-with-everything for Spring.

RATIFICATION OF TWIN TREATIES ADENAUER GOAL

BONN, Germany (AP)—West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer battled today for lower house ratification of twin treaties to bring his almost-nation into armed alliance with the West. The 77-year-old government chief wants this step completed before he goes to the United States for a state visit April 6.

The treaties are the Allied-Bonn Peace Contract, giving West Germany near-sovereignty, and the six-nation European Defense Community pact, setting up a unified West European army. Germany would contribute 500,000 men to the one-uniform force.

As the two agreements came up in the lower house (Bundestag) for their third and final reading, the confident Adenauer called for a big majority "to show the way" to the rest of free Europe.

The final vote was expected tonight after extended debate and lengthy opposition from Socialist opponents.

Face Last-ditch Fight
The anti-rearmament Socialists have announced plans for a last-ditch fight against ratification, but most members of the opposition conceded privately they had little hope of blocking lower house approval. Adenauer beat them by 50 votes on the second reading last December.

But the Socialists have hopes of stopping the treaties in later stages of its progress toward final German approval. Adenauer still must steer the pacts through the upper house (Bundesrat), and then face a battle in the Federal Supreme Court over the constitutionality of rearming the country.

The issue of rearmament also is expected to dominate next summer's national election campaign in which the Chancellor will fight to retain his leadership.

Approval of the treaties — a major step in Adenauer's efforts to lead West Germany into a unified Europe—would give the Chancellor added prestige during his Washington talks next month with President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles.

Kitchen Becomes Center Of Home

The American kitchen is now being devoted to family living. It is no longer just a utility room for cooking and preparing meals. Today the kitchen is planned to serve as dining room, teen-age meeting place, "hobby-house" and sewing center.

SURPRISE FOR SPRING
Jersey is the big surprise of the new season in suits, coats and ensembles as well as dresses.

COMMITTEE OK'S BOHLEN; MAY BE SENATE BATTLE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democrats generally applauded the Eisenhower administration today for standing firm on Charles E. (Chip) Bohlen's nomination to be ambassador to Russia, but two Republicans said they may fight it on the Senate floor.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee's 15-0 approval of Bohlen yesterday and Secretary of State Dulles' defense of the nominee were hailed by Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.) as the start of a "true bi-partisan foreign policy."

Sparkman and Senators Humphrey (D-Minn.) and Mansfield (D-Mont.) said Dulles "met the test." Sparkman added: "It demonstrated the influence of the administration when it chooses to exercise it."

Two May Stage Battle
But Senators McCarthy (R-Wis.) and Bridges (R-NH) protested the committee's vote of approval on Dulles' evaluation of an FBI field report on Bohlen. They said the committee should have insisted on seeing the report itself.

With admitted prospects for only a handful of opposition votes, McCarthy and Bridges talked about carrying their fight to the Senate

Strapless Bra Good For Slender Styles

The strapless bra-top slip is especially good with the slender dress styles that feature wide open necklines cut in boat, scoop or open V effects.

With beige and navy leading in Spring ensembles, newest lingerie will be cued to pick up these colors, especially since many of the new fabrics are rather sheer and light in weight.

floor next Monday.

McCarthy said President Eisenhower should read the FBI report on Bohlen, adding:

"It's difficult from a security standpoint to discuss some phases of the case, but we are forced to do it. If the President read the file, he would withdraw the name."

But Dulles told a closed session of the committee yesterday, Sparkman said, that he did read the file and there was not a single thing in it that would cast the "slightest suspicion on Bohlen."

And Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich.), who conducted a long one-man inquiry into Bohlen's part in the war-time conference at Yalta—and then voted for the nominee—said he was satisfied with Bohlen's and Dulles' testimony that Bohlen did not "influence" agreements made there. Bohlen acted as Russian language interpreter for President Roosevelt at Yalta.
